

TRAVEL THURSDAY VOL.3

MARIN COUNTY, CA

Explore this California province, birthplace of mountain biking and home to the oldest cross-country race in the US... If you enjoy nature, this is THE place to be!

BY: HARRY YU

Quick Facts

- The oldest cross country race in the United States, Dipsea, is hosted in Marin
- Mountain biking was born on the side of Mt. Tamalpais
- Home to 370+ hiking, running and biking trails
- George Lucas' Skywalker Ranch-where the production of Star Wars took place-is in Marin county

TOP ATTRACTIONS

MARIN HEADLANDS

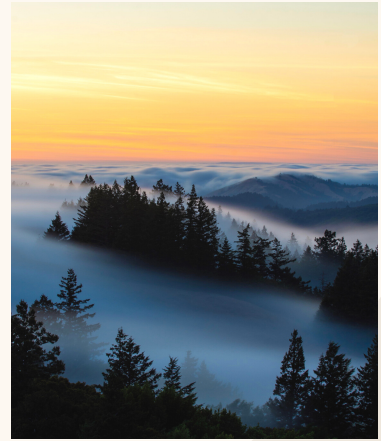

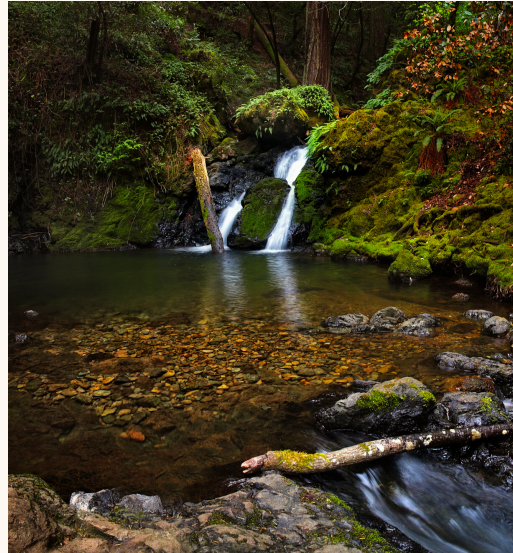

POINT REYES

MUIR WOODS

[CLICK TO SEE
MORE!](#)

WHY AN ENTIRE COUNTY?

Each year, thousands of people travel to Marin county. People flock to Marin for its natural beauty and splendor.

Surprisingly, people from all over California, the United States, and the world are not familiar with the Marin county name, but if they are a bit of a nature enthusiast they have definitely heard of Mt. Tamalpais, Muir Woods, and the Marin Headlands.

It is nestled just north of San Francisco, and half of the Golden Gate bridge is designated as Marin county lines. There is so much to explore, not to mention the very comfortable weather year-round. Go and find out for yourself, who knows what you'll find next!

CHECK US OUT ON OUR SOCIAL MEDIA!

